Maui+Derm

FOR DERMATOLOGISTS

Dear Colleague,

Aloha!

The 15th Annual meeting of Maui Derm for Dermatologists 2019 will be held January 26-30, 2019 in the intimate and beautiful setting of the Grand Wailea in Wailea, Maui. Registration opens Friday, January 25, 2019. The meeting begins Saturday, January 26th and concludes Wednesday, January 30th.

MauiDerm continues to strive to maintain a cutting edge blend of basic science and clinical medicine. Our world class faculty, in-depth discussions and interactive formatting of topics vital to our practice of dermatology.

Maui Derm's program format addresses a wide range of clinically relevant topics in medical and aesthetic dermatology as well as dermatology coding and billing. Our medical dermatology general sessions are complemented by our 2-hour, interactive workshops. New workshops are introduced each year in response to your requests. The medical dermatology workshops, held in intimate small group settings, are directed by our expert faculty of world-class educators. The third and fourth meeting days include lectures and workshops in aesthetic dermatology with both onstage and small group, hands-on, product-specific live patient demonstrations using neuromodulators and dermal fillers. This year we will honor Dr. Pearl Grimes with the Alan Shalita Memorial Award and Dr. Eggert Stockfleth with the Stuart Maddin Memorial Award.

I know that there are many meetings to choose from, it is my hope that you will join us for what promises to be an outstanding educational event.

Warmest aloha,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "George Martin MD". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the "MD" at the end being more distinct.

Program Description

Target Audience

This educational activity is designed for Dermatologists.

Maui Derm Mission Statement

To increase physicians' knowledge in areas of medical and cosmetic dermatology in order to enable the physicians to provide better care for their patients.

Program Rationale

The Dermatology landscape is ever changing. There have been significant advances with regards to the diagnosis, management and treatment of both medical and cosmetic dermatologic conditions. Dermatologists require direction and insight into the proper management of these conditions.

Learning Objectives

As a result of attending the Maui Derm for Dermatologists 2019, attendees should be able to:

1. Explain the pathogenesis of various dermatological conditions
2. Cite the mechanisms of action of drugs and therapies that are commonly prescribed by the dermatologist
3. Describe potential adverse effects and resistance issues that may be related to the use of drugs and therapies prescribed by clinicians in dermatology
4. Describe techniques to avoid and manage potential side effects and complications related to dermatologic therapies and procedures
5. Define appropriate outcome measures for the optimal follow-up of patients with dermatologic diseases as well as those receiving surgical and cosmetic procedures
6. Assess the data related to emerging therapies for the treatment of a variety of dermatologic diseases
7. Recognize the important role of clinician/patient communication

ENDURING EDUCATION

e-Newsletters

Based upon the evidence-based content delivered at the Maui Derm conference, the educational e-newsletters will cover the various topics delivered from the meeting. These monthly e-newsletters will be delivered electronically via an "opt-in" process to the dermatology community. The e-newsletters will include key talking points from the presentations, challenging cases including both diagnostic and management issues, embedded videos and podcasts, and downloadable slides. Topics to be included are:

- Psoriasis and Psoriatic Arthritis
- Acne/Rosacea
- Neuromodulators/Dermal Fillers
- Lasers
- Pediatric Dermatology
- Cutaneous Oncology and Pigmented Lesions
- Infectious Disease
- New Drugs and Therapies
- Atopic Dermatitis
- Contact Dermatitis
- Connective Tissue Disorders
- Cosmeceuticals
- Dermatology Coding and Billing; CLIA
- Challenging Cases in Dermatology
- Nail Disorders
- Surgical Approaches to Wound Closures

Dermatology Times

In order to reach a broader audience with the content from the Maui Derm for Dermatologists meeting, Advances in Cosmetic and Medical Dermatology (ACMD) will produce follow-up conference coverage in the Dermatology Times. Dermatology Times is the only clinical newsmagazine that reaches dermatologists exclusively. The combination of timely, high-level reporting and targeted specialty reach of the most active prescribers in skin care enables Dermatology Times to generate higher readership and exposure.

MauiDermNews.com

Maui Derm plans to produce online video web/podcasts that will be available on both the Maui Derm website and MauiDermNews.com.

Derm Tube

Maui Derm 2019 will once again have a strategic relationship for enduring online materials with DermTube. com. "Derm Tube" is an educational online video resource site exclusively developed for dermatology health- care providers and industry professionals. DermTube featured speakers and content from previous Maui Derm meetings and garnered an unprecedented number of daily views. We look forward to having Derm Tube join us in 2019 as our our online video source of enduring materials.

ACCREDITATION STATEMENT

This activity has been planned and implemented in accordance with the accreditation requirements and policies of the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) through the joint providership of the University of Cincinnati and Advances in Cosmetic and Medical Dermatology.

The University of Cincinnati is accredited by the ACCME to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

The UC Continuing Medical Education Office has reviewed the above activity application and has approved your activity for 38 AMA PRA CME Category 1 Credits™. Strict adherence to the UC CME Office requirements and the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support is expected.

Overall Format

This 5-day, comprehensive CME activity will utilize evidence-based data around the management of dermatologic conditions. Case studies, interactive discussion, patient demonstrations, and workshops will enhance the relevancy providing dermatologists with the ability to apply the data into clinical practice.

Faculty Disclosure Declaration

According to the disclosure policy of the University of Cincinnati College of Medicine, all faculty, planning committee members, and other individuals who are in a position to control content are required to disclose any relevant relationships with any commercial interest related to this activity. The existence of these interests or relationships is not viewed as implying bias or decreasing the value of the presentation. All educational materials are reviewed for fair balance, scientific objectivity and levels of evidence. Disclosure will be made at the time of activity.

ADA STATEMENT

Special Needs: In accordance with the Americans with Disabilities Act, Maui Derm & NMG Meeting Management seeks to make this conference accessible to all. Additionally, she will provide video demonstration of her surgical approaches to nail disorders. Workshop C: Exceptional Eczematous Expertise and Powerful Patch Testing Chronic dermatitis patients getting you down? Feel like you should be able to do better, but not sure where to start? Dr. Zirwas will answer your questions from beginning to end - from your approach to the first visit with a new patient with dermatitis (What kind of dermatitis is it? Should I patch test them? Will steroids mess it up if I patch test them?), to how to do the patch testing (Where do I get the materials? How do I pick the allergens? How do I get that much tape to stick? I heard patch testing is illegal because the allergens aren't FDA approved?), to educating patients about allergens you've never heard of (cocamidopro... huh?), to what to do when the patch test is all negative. Included in the session will be the opportunity to actually work with the patch test materials and learn how to put them on patients. Possibly even more importantly, we'll talk about what to do when the patch testing is negative and you've still got an itchy, frustrated patient on your hands.	WORKSHOP A Moderator: T. Wailea, Maui

Tucked in the leeward side of Mount Haleakala, between the green slopes of the volcano and the deep blue of the pacific, Wailea proved also to be a fertile land for grazing and growing sugar cane. Ultimately, 1500 acres of ranch land passed into the hands of developers, who went about establishing one of the most exclusive resort enclaves in the world. Today, Wailea is studied by architects and planners from around the world as a model for resorts. Its five super-luxe hotels are arrayed like jewels against a royal cape of emerald green landscape.

The gem-like beaches of Wailea are sheltered, secluded and rarely crowded, even for visitors not staying at one of the Wailea's resorts. Wailea's five beaches – Keawakapu, Mokapu, Ulua, Wailea Beach and Polo Beach offer calm waters which are a swimmer's delight. Polo Beach, at the south end of Wailea, with its partially paved path and beautiful landscape, has been called one of the most romantic spots in the area. Snorkeling and scuba are prime activities in Wailea.
